

Summary

Introduction to Logistics #### Overview of Logistics The lecture transcript begins by emphasizing the **significance of logistics** in business and supply chain management. Logistics is referred to as the **backbone** or **foundation** of any business, indicating its crucial role in supporting the overall operations of a company. #### Importance of Logistics The lecturer highlights that logistics has been an integral part of human life, from the transportation of goods to the movement of people. The importance of logistics is further stressed by comparing it to the **bedrock** of a business, suggesting that it provides a solid base for all other activities. #### Logistics Planning #### Types of Logistics Planning The discussion then shifts to **logistics planning**, which is a critical aspect of logistics management. The lecturer mentions **strategic logistics planning**, **tactical logistics planning**, and **operational logistics planning** as different types of planning involved in logistics. #### Classification of Logistics Planning A student asks about the classification of these types of planning, and the lecturer explains that they are all part of **logistics planning**. The exact classification of these types of planning is not clearly defined in the transcript, but it is implied that they are related to **operational planning**. #### Conclusion The lecture transcript appears to be a discussion on the importance of logistics and the different types of logistics planning. However, the transcript is not well-structured, and the conversation seems to be disjointed at times. #### Summary * **Logistics** is the backbone of any business and supply chain. * **Logistics planning** involves strategic, tactical, and operational planning. * The classification of these types of planning is not clearly defined, but they are all part of logistics planning. * **Operational planning** is an important aspect of logistics management. * The lecture transcript highlights the significance of logistics in business and supply chain management, but the discussion is not well-structured.

[00:00] The role of logistics, we can also say, is significant. [00:08] But at the same time, I can also say that logistics is the bedrock. [00:25] Logistics is the bedroom of any business and supply chain. [00:51] When they say something, it's a bedroom. [00:58] What does that mean? [01:00] It's a corporeal. [01:01] Eh? [01:02] It's the leg of that. [01:08] It's the backbone. [01:13] It's the foundation. [01:18] For instance, like I was telling you last year, the transport of these two things is [01:27] what we know. [01:28] But it has been part of all life from the time we have conceived in our mother's womb. [01:35] I don't know if you have seen any woman that is pregnant and said I want to be like this [01:41] throughout my pregnancy. [01:43] Deborah, this is what I say to you. [01:46] I want to go to a fight. [01:49] Where are your guests? [01:54] She has no reason. [01:57] There are two other ones who... [02:01] So soon. [02:03] Where are they? [02:06] I'm going to... [02:09] Where are their dear friends? [02:35] Thank you Thank you Is that any lady at the back No Cynthia [02:58] I want to go. [03:00] I want to go. [03:02] Cynthia, you there? [03:04] One, sir. [03:06] That's me, sir. [03:08] I want to go. [03:10] I want to go. [03:12] I want to go. [03:14] I want to go. [03:16] I told them that. [03:20] How many kids do we have in this class? [03:22] I think there are seven. [03:28] Where is that man? [03:30] I think there are two of them that still are at Dama last year. [03:35] Where is she? [03:41] She's what? [03:44] She will resume. [03:45] Have you called her? [03:46] Yes. [03:46] Let's go. [03:49] What does our system keep out? [03:52] Eh? [03:53] So, Macy, what's your question? [04:08] I had a question. [04:10] When you're asking about the importance and characteristics, [04:14] what can we characterize the strategy, tactical, and tactical? [04:20] Huh? [04:21] What can we characterize the strategy, tactical, [04:26] and tactical? [04:29] There are some questions that are direct. [04:44] There are some questions that are speaking and discussing about that are narrowed. [04:51] For instance, we have looked at logistics strategies, we also look at operational work. [04:59] And we are able to look at the difference between them. [05:06] So that will be a question that deals directly with logistics strategy. [05:12] That will also be a question that deals with operational planning. [05:16] And that will also be a question that deals with logistics. [05:21] So you must be able to know, is this question asking? [05:26] Is this person talking about logistics strategy? [05:31] Is this person talking about operational planning? [05:33] Is this person talking about logistics ? [05:39] We won't be able to know those things. [05:41] Sir I think what you were trying to ask was that where do we classify strategic logistics planning tactical logistic planning and operational logistic planning [05:52] Where do you classify them under? We know that they are under logistic planning. [05:56] Like, is it type of logistic planning or what? [06:03] They are what type of operational logistic planning. [06:12] Thank you. [06:42] Thank you. [07:12] Thank you. [07:42] Thank you. [08:12] One, two, three, four, six, eight, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven. [08:42] Thank you Yes Yes sir Yes [08:48] . [08:50] . [08:52] . [08:53] . [08:57] . [09:01] . [09:03] . [09:04] I have 49 years here. [09:25] I have 49 years here. [09:27] I was a one of these in my class today. [09:29] Who wrote somebody's name there's no here? [09:33] I will find out, though. [09:49] There's a talk for me. [09:56] 5 to 15. [09:57] Thank you. [10:27] Thank you. [10:57] President sir. [11:00] I am here. David. [11:04] I am here David. [11:06] President sir. [11:08] Are you sure you are doing well? [11:11] So where was you before? [11:15] Kadeek Uspan. [11:19] Yakupu Green Muhammad. [11:23] Yakupu Lai Obrahim. [11:27] Thank you.
